CABINET IS DEBATING

Spain's Proposal for Peace is Receiving Consideration.

WHAT AMERICAN DEMANDS ARE LIKELY TO BE.

Washington, July 29—Special—It is no violation of confidence to say that the president and cabinet have agreed as to the terms of peace with Spain. This government will insist upon the concessions already outlined in these dispatches—the absolute independence of Cuba, the cession of Porto Rico, a coaling station in the Philippines and an American protectorate over them, and depots for coal and supplies in the Carolines and Ladrones. The question of further indemnity is yet to be determined, but this government will not be strenuous or harsh in this respect. The terms will be communicated to M. Cambon, the French ambassador through whom the peace proposals came, either this afternoon or tomorrow.

After a two hours' session the cabinet adjourned at 1:30 to meet again at three. Secretary Long said nothing had been accomplished.

Despite Secretary Long's denial it is authoritatively stated that the cabinet reached the following decision: The absolute surrender of Porto Rico; the recognition of the independence of Cuba; the cession of one of the Ladrones to the United States as a coaling station, and the cession to the United States of at least a coaling station in the Philippines.

Sagasta's Complaint.

Washington, July 29—Special—There is no uneasiness here over the complaint of Sagasta that this government is taking an unfair advantage by prosecuting the Porto Rico campaign during the pendency of peace negotiations. There are in fact no propositions for peace before this government. M. Cambon's action on behalf of Spain amounts simply to an inquiry as to the terms upon which the United States will grant peace. No armistice has been asked or granted, and consequently a state of war exists today in every essential requirement just as it has existed for months. If Sagasta's pretension was allowed our armies might remain idle indefinitely, while those of Spain could be making preparations for an effective resistance. The absurdity of Sagasta's contention is evident.

The Letter of the Bond.

Washington, July 29—Special—The need of caution in dealing with Spain at this juncture is fully appreciated here. The officials, from the president down, recognize the fact that Spain is a wily foe and is seeking advantage by every means within reach, and not at all scrupulous as to the means employed to gain its ends. No one trusts the Spanish diplomats; no one will be surprised at encountering treachery at any stage of the proceedings. For this reason the stipulations submitted will be exact and incapable of misconstruction. Terms once agreed upon will be rigidly enforced, and the letter of the bond will be insisted upon. There will be no room for quibbling over the terms that will be submitted tomorrow.

Feeling the Public Pulse.

Washington, July 29—Special—There are indications that President McKinley is feeling the public pulse relative to the terms of peace which shall be given to Spain. He has had free conferences during the past few days with men of every class from all parts of the country, and has solicited their views, listening patiently to all arguments advanced. It may be safely said that he will not throw away the fruits of the victories won by American soldiers and sailors, and while he will not exact oppressive conditions he will insist upon such reparation from Spain as the public shall demand.

In Favor of Peace.

Paris, July 29—Special—Madrid dispatches say Campos and Azcarra favor an immediate conclusion of peace. Weyler, it is said, will not oppose the peace negotiations.

Detained at Quarantine.

New York, July 29—Special—The transport Leon arrived from Siboney this morning with sick and wounded. The vessel will be detained at quarantine.

PHILIP HICHBORN, Chief of Construction United States Navy. Sur. Gen. Geo. M. Sternberg, U. S. Army.

All Well In Porto Rico.

Washington, July 29—Special—The Porto Rico campaign is progressing satisfactorily. Gens. Miles and Brooke are executing their movements precisely as arranged, and the native rebels are flocking to their camps. There are evidences of mutiny among the native troops hitherto allies of Spain, and much aid is expected from them. It is not thought that the campaign will be prolonged beyond August, and it may end immediately upon the capitulation of San Juan, which cannot be long delayed.

A Rough Rider's Funeral.

New York, July 29—Special—The funeral of Sergeant Hamilton Fish, the Rough Rider killed at the battle of La Quasina, occurred today. A score of millionaires attended. A number of wounded Rough Riders were also present.

BURIED IN SAND BANK

Fenimore, Wis., July 29—[Special]—Early this morning John Winkler, a teamster, was instantly killed in a sand pile one mile west of here. A rock weighing two tons fell upon him, and his body was completely buried in sand. Thomas Manulog, a twelve year old lad, escaped with his life by jumping aside. He, too, was struck, and both his legs are broken at the ankles. The lad displayed great courage by crawling on his hands and knees fifty feet and calling for help.

HIGHER CAMP GROUND

Location of the First Wisconsin Has Been Moved to a More Healthful Site.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 29—The First Wisconsin was moved to higher grounds this morning where the drainage is good. Returned from the hospital: Private Hammond and Winans. No new cases. All the sick are doing well.

CLINTON SOLDIERS' REUNION

Gov. Scofield Will Be Here Monday En Route For the Rendezvous

Gov. Scofield will be in Janesville next Monday en route to the Rock and Walworth counties Soldiers' and Sailors' reunion at Clinton, which takes place on that day. He will be met here by a delegation of the veterans and escorted to Clinton, where he will deliver an address in the afternoon.

The reunion will doubtless be the largest ever held in this section of the state. The program is an interesting one, and is republished here for the benefit of those who may have overlooked it:

6:00 a. m. Sunrise salute, 13 guns.
7:00 to 8:30 a. m. Reception of veterans and distinguished guests.
8:30 to 10:00 a. m. Athletic games, tug-of-war, wheelbarrow race.

HANDICAP GOLF MATCH

Members of the Mississippi Golf club had the first of a series of handicap matches on Buckleton links this afternoon. The fact that it was the first handicap of the season made the task of qualifying the various players a heavy one. Long before the match began the committees were bent and haggard from care. Allowances ran as high as 18, the handicapping being done on the basis of a net score of 48. The first couple started away about 2 o'clock.

NEW INQUIRY ORDERED

Conduct of the Crew of La Bourgogne Has Brought About a Fresh Investigation

Paris, July 29—[Special]—The La Bourgogne disaster is causing renewed agitation and charges of brutality on the part of the crew have decided the minister of marine to order a new inquiry.

HIS DAY OF EMANCIPATION

Prominent Orfordville Contractor Rejoice.

Edward S. Rositor, of Orfordville, a well known contractor, who has been under treatment at the Hargreaves' institute during the past two weeks for the liquor habit, is himself again and will return home in a few days free from shackles that have held him in thrall for years past. His cure has been complete and satisfactory, and he finds his mental and physical powers completely rejuvenated and will resume his business duties with fresh ambition and renewed energies. Mr. Rositor has many friends in Rock county, where he has resided for many years. His one failing was inability to resist the influence of the cup that both cheers and inebriates. Now that he has been emancipated from the unnatural craving his friends look forward to a long career of usefulness and prosperity for him.

ARE THEY AFTER COOPER?

It Is Said That Railway Corporations Would Like His Scalp.

Racine News—A prominent politician intimated recently that some of the local republicans were opposing Cooper for a financial consideration. His hostility to the railway corporations it seems did not meet with their approval, and it is whispered that the corporations stand ready to spend money to defeat his renomination.

It would not be surprising if there was considerable truth in this story. It is known that for years the railways and their lobbyists have watched legislators, and those who have shown a hostile spirit towards their interests generally met with a stiff fight when he again appeared in the field.

UNION RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian Churches To Unite For a Time

Union services are about to be held in the Presbyterian, Baptist and the two Methodist churches. Next Sunday evening Rev. E. H. Pence will preach in Court Street M. E. church. On Sunday evening, Aug. 7, Rev. Walter A. Hall will preach in the Presbyterian church. On Sunday evening, Aug. 14, Rev. J. B. Smith will preach in the Baptist church and on Sunday evening, Aug. 14, Rev. A. C. Kempton will occupy the pulpit of the First M. E. church. Good music and large crowds will doubtless characterize these union services.

Another Chance For the Delta

An excursion train from Mineral Point to the Delta will pass through Janesville at 9:30 a. m. Sunday, July 31. Round trip tickets will be sold from Janesville at $2 for the round trip. Train will leave Kilbourn on return at 6:30 p. m.

PEACE YET FAR DISTANT

WHAT THE DEMANDS OF THE UNITED STATES WILL COVER.

Washington, July 29—Special—It is now confidently expected that after today's cabinet meeting the decision with regard to the peace negotiations with Spain will be given the French ambassador, the accredited agent of the Madrid government. There is reason to believe that after conference with members of the cabinet the president has already made up his mind. The conclusion he has reached, it is said, is to relinquish the Philippines, retaining a coaling station. The freedom of Cuba, and the retention of Porto Rico is looked upon as a foregone conclusion. The president's decision, however, may be changed before the cabinet disposes of the matter today. Strong influences are bearing on the president to induce him to keep Spain out of the Philippines, and the settlement of this point may delay the answer.

Manila Has Surrendered.

Paris, July 29—Special—The local edition of the New York Herald says a cable dispatch has been received at Madrid reaffirming the statement that Manila has surrendered to the American forces.

Washington, July 29—Special—No official dispatches confirming the reported fall of Manila have been received here.

Du Bosc's Case.

London, July 29—Special—In the house of commons today Secretary Chamberlain announced that Senor Du Bosc, late secretary of the Spanish legation at Washington, had been expelled from Canada territory by Great Britain because he was using British territory for the purpose of conducting belligerent operations against the United States.

Discussing Peace Proposals.

Washington, July 29—Special—Secretary Day had a long conference with the president this morning over the answer to be made to Spain regarding the peace propositions. At its conclusion the cabinet assembled and is now discussing the question.

Sagasta Has Hope.

Madrid, July 29—Special—After the cabinet meeting yesterday Sagasta said he was unable to say anything definite regarding the peace negotiations, but there were grounds for hope that an understanding will be reached.

A Porto Rican Protest.

Berlin, July 29—Special—Dispatches received here say independence has been declared by the Porto Rico parliament. The newly adopted constitution uses forcible language against the invasion by the Americans.

A Mutinous Regiment.

Chattanooga, July 29—Special—The Fifth Illinois may be mustered out of the service. The discipline and organization of the regiment are gone. Col. Culver has lost complete control of his men.

Transporting the Prisoners.

Cadiz, July 29—Special—Two Spanish Trans-Atlantic steamers departed for Santiago to take on board the Spanish prisoners surrendered there. Other vessels will sail shortly.

The Last of the Invaders.

Norfolk, Va., July 29—Special—The cruiser St. Paul, the last troop ship to leave for Porto Rico with men of Brooke's division, sailed this morning.

Sailed For Manila.

San Francisco, July 29—Special—The transport St. Paul sailed for Manila this morning with nine hundred troops.

Returned to Cadiz.

Madrid, July 29—Special—Admiral Camara's squadron has returned to Cadiz.

OUR DAILY STORY

THE STORM.

A sudden gale had sprung up from the northeast; great black backed gull and feeble winged pulling had been forced alike through the smoking mists inland. Night fell amid the clash of wind and sea. A narrow track winding round the cliffs led past a cottage; light shone from the windows, and in the kitchen were three women. The youngest lay in a trundle bed, a baby against her breast; an old woman, tall, gaunt and white haired, sat at a table, the Bible before her, muttering over familiar passages with awkward lips; the third moved softly about the room preparing supper. She stood a moment by the bed, as the child broke into a long, low wail.

"Poor lamb!" she said. "He frets as if your breast was cold to him."

"Maybe his cold," replied the sick girl indifferently.

"Aye, but not tonight, Nan," the other protested, "and his father out in a storm like this."

"The Lord have mercy on the lad," exclaimed the old woman, glancing up, "he's got that scamp Rab Tapp with him in the boat. Scores of times I've told Joss 'twould be safer to sail 'long o' decent folk."

Nan stirred uneasily. "Rab's as good as the rest of 'em," she muttered, "and a long ways landier."

"Handy wi' his tongue be like," retorted the old woman, "there ain't his equal for lying in this here parish. 'Tis only reasonable that the Lord should be angered ag'in him, though maybe the Almighty will mind that Joss has been a good son to me and spare the boat."

She was silent a moment, listening to the continuous clamor of the massive door bolts that barred back the storm.

"Aye, that Rab," she burst out fiercely, "they should cast him overboard the same as the men of Joppa cast the prophet Jonah, son of Amittai. Who knows but the Almighty may be speaking now by the voice of the wind? Cast him out, cast him out, and the raging waves of the sea shall foam upon his shame."

"How dare 'ee speak such words as them!" cried the girl, springing up in bed. "The Lord ain't no Moloch to devour men's lives."

"And what's Rab Tapp's life to thee?" replied the other sternly. "It'll becomen a mother with her first child at breast to be taking such thought for furrin men's lives."

"Come, come, mother," interposed the third woman, "let Nan be. Supper's on the table, and you'd feel better for a snatch of sommat."

"I did wot to name 'ee Martha," cried the old woman, turning on her. "Your thoughts be too much taken up wi' the things of this world. What call have I for bite or sup when the great starved sea is hungering after my son? Aye, but Joss, lad, lad," she continued to herself, "and you that found o' whistling!"

Martha made no answer, but, pouring out a cup of tea, brought it to the sick girl. "Happen 'twill quench your thirst a bit, Nan," she said.

"Taint that kind o' thirst," replied the other wearily.

"Take it all the same, lass," Martha urged, and the girl drank.

"'Tis salt as the sea!" she exclaimed, pushing the cup from her with a shudder. "Seems as if I knowed the taste o' drowning."

"And well you may," exclaimed the old woman, "when your man is forced so high to it."

"Joss will not be drowned," replied her daughter-in-law carelessly. "What for should he be drowned? Oh, my God," she ended, with abrupt change of voice, as the hurrying scream of the storm wrenched its way through the cottage, "why did yer make the sea?"

She flung herself back in the bed, and the child began once more to cry, but he paid no heed to it.

"Poor heart," said Martha, stooping and raising the baby in her arms, "he frets over things." She walked to and fro in the little kitchen, her face pressed close against the child's, her soft brown hair mingling with his soft, downy fluff. "My own child," she murmured meditatively, "was wonderful outsome."

"Your own child?" exclaimed the old woman, "Why, your own child was born dead!"

"Her was never dead to me," Martha answered gently. "I used to talk a deal 'er lying there so close and trustful in my heart. But now I sorter feel as if me and Jim had another child 'twould be born dead."

"Aye, and no wonder," retorted the other. "A more shiftless body than I ain't come across, always trapesing round in searching work and never finding it. He's a poor stick. The sea or gave him no call, and you can sit and eat your victuals content, come em, come clear."

The sick girl raised herself on her elbow. "There's one thing I never could understand," she exclaimed with sudden interest, "and that's his being own brother to Rab. Why, he ain't no patch on 'em."

"No," rejoined her mother-in-law, "he's more fool than cheat certain. If 'twere he out in the boat Joss, happen the Lord might overtake him."

The girl's dark eyes flashed, and Martha interposed in a hurt voice: "Maybe Jim ain't so quick at the take up as Rab, but he's mortal persoversous at trying. After all, Nan," she added, "you ain't never seen Rab but twice."

"No, I ain't never seen him but twice," the girl repeated.

"No, as never spoke much to one 'nother."

"Aye, certain," exclaimed Martha. "Why, the last time he come in here 'twas a matter of three weeks ago. You was sitting up in front of the fire nursing the child, and he just stood over again 'ee by the chimneypiece, sorter thoughtful. 'Do you love it?' he axed, 'do you love it?' but you didn't make no answer. Them were his words. Do you mind, Nan?"

"Yes," said the girl softly, "I mind."

"'Twas a queer question I reckoned to put to a mother, but there, you ain't never been terrible up wi' the child."

"No."

"Maybe you didn't speak to him sorter tender afore you burned him, same as I did my little girl."

"No."

"Yet 'twor my child that was born dead."

"Aye," the girl answered fiercely, "and ain't mine born dead too?"

The old woman glanced at her in astonishment. "What ails you, Nan?" she exclaimed. "Why, the poor lamb is calling for the breast."

"I don't hear it call," the girl answered stonily.

Martha looked down with sad eyes at the child on her knee. "You don't love it terrible tenderly," she said.

The girl, turning away her head, made no reply. Without the storm clamored more fiercely and the faces of the listening women grew white and tense.

"And ain't I praying for 'em?" expostulated the old woman passionately. "Say the word aloud, mother, and let us join in."

The old woman clasped her hands, worn with toil, knotted with age, and sank on her knees. Her thin lips trembled, but no words broke from them. Wind and sea, as if in derision at her helplessness, burst into more hideous combat, and the thunder heaved its way through their clamor with a noise like the splitting of mountains.

"O God!" sobbed the woman, "he wor a good son to me, a good son to me." She was silent a moment, and the storm without appeared itself against the cliffs, rocking the cottage in its heavy embrace. "O God!" she burst forth again. "Ye would have spared Sodom for the sake of ten righteous men, and 'twor a terrible big and wicked city—spare the boat cause o' Joss! I wouldn't have axed so bold if 'twor a ship, but it's nought but a boat, mortal small and tiddeliwinkie, wi' only three men and a lad in it, and the lad's a decent lad come o' respectable church folk, no chappellers a-setting o' themselves up above their betters. Happen you're angered ag'in Rab Tapp, and well you might be, for he's not over and above conspicuous in good works. Still he's young—and youth's learning time—but, if ye be terrible set on cutting him off—and I'll not deny the temptation—then, O Lord God, speak to Joss through the mouth of the winds, same as ye did the men of Joppa, so that he shall rise and cast Rab forth into the deep, and the sea shall cease her raging!"

As she uttered the last words the sick girl sprang from the bed and caught the old woman by the shoulders. "How dare 'ee mind the Almighty o' Rab's weaknesses at such a time," she cried passionately.

"And do you reckon that the Lord has forgotten 'em?" replied the old woman in a hard voice. "Ain't they all written in the book o' judgment?"

"There be scores and scores o' folk on the sea tonight," the girl answered, "dear wicked folk than Rab, and why should the Almighty be special took up wi' he? Oh, 'twas cruel, cruel o' yer to put him in mind o' the lad."

"Ain't the names o' all sailor men written on the same page, that the Lord may read and choose in the twinkling o' an eye? And shall I see my own cast away for fear o' spending out?" rejoined the old woman fiercely. "My firstborn, that lay at my breast and milked me trustsome. Shame on you to think o' stranger folk afore your own wedded husband."

While she spoke there was the sound of heavy knocking on the door without. Martha crossed the room, shot back the great bolts, and a man, pale faced, drenched and battered, staggered in. The old woman gave an abrupt, low cry. "My son!" she exclaimed, and would have taken him in her arms, but he put her gently aside and came toward the girl, who stood barefooted on the cold stone floor, her long brown hair curling over her coarse nightgown.

"Nan," he cried, "sweetheart, woman, wife, God's has given me back to 'ee."

"And Rab?" she said hoarsely.

"The sea has taken his toll. Rab's drowned," he answered.

"'Twas he I loved, not you," she cried and fell at the man's feet as dead.—London Outlook.

BANKRUPTCY LAW RULING.

Milwaukee Judge Says Federal Court Alone Has Jurisdiction. Milwaukee, July 29.—Judge Johnson Thursday announced an opinion to the effect that the new general bankruptcy law deprived the state courts of jurisdiction in bankrupt cases. In consequence, his honor said, hereafter no such cases would be heard in his court. This ruling operates to suspend proceedings in all cases and send them to the federal court.

Some of the attorneys are of the opinion that the bankruptcy law does not invalidate pending proceedings and a test case may be made. It is also claimed by attorneys that plain, everyday assignments may still be brought in the state courts, subject to an application by foreign creditors to have the matter transferred to the federal court.

THE PRESS AND LA FOLLETTE.

Mr. La Follette's Ambition.

Eau Claire Telegram—The Hon. Robert M. La Follette has published a manifesto to inform the public that he is a candidate for governor of Wisconsin. His announcement is not of the ordinary kind in which a friendly contest is implied, but on the contrary is a declaration of war upon the republican party in Wisconsin, an attempted impeachment of its record and the personal and political integrity of its leaders; a general assumption that the party is corrupt and unworthy the confidence of the people. In other words, to Mr. La Follette all things seem evil, and as in the case of the jaundiced Prince of Denmark, it goes so heavily with his disposition that the entire universe, in his frenzied eye, is but a "foul and pestilent congregation of vapors." We have a right to question the motives of Mr. La Follette, for he assails the motives of all who stand in the way of his ambition; and even if it were true that the condition of affairs which his imagination bodies forth really existed, there ought to be great hesitancy in committing to the care of Mr. La Follette and his associates the great interests of which he is the self-appointed champion. He has not succeeded, in spite of the most strenuous efforts in the past, in convincing the people that he possesses a monopoly of the brains and the honesty of the party, and as the implied proposition that he does possess such monopoly is the basis of his candidacy, he must bear a heavy burden of proof to get standing in court before argument on his specific allegations can begin. His ambition seems to be wholly personal; equally so are his methods of attack, which, as exemplified by his supporters, border on the trivial; and we believe the decision of the people will be that needed reforms may be intrusted to broader men. It is easy to expatiate on equality of taxation, to take an example. It is a crying evil. But what can Mr. La Follette do for us in that respect? Nothing, unless he is able and purer than any other public man in the state, which even Mr. La Follette would hesitate to say in so many words. The same may be said of the other campaign ammunition with which the "reform" artillery is shot. Without necessarily saying that Mr. La Follette is a demagogue, it is pertinent to state that it has been used by many a demagogue before. It makes a loud sound when discharged, and its main use is that under the smoke from his blarney cartridges the demagogue sometimes crawls into office.

Making a Mistake.

Burlington Free Press: It is to be regretted that R. M. La Follette should find it necessary to be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor at the present time. While the Free Press is in hearty accord with some of the views that Mr. La Follette has expressed in his speeches during the past two years, still it hardly seems as though it was policy for him to take a step that will possibly end in political defeat and intensify the factional strife that exists in the republican party in this state at present.

Friends to Sacrifice Him.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin—The Evening Wisconsin is not unfriendly to Mr. La Follette. It supported him zealously and fervently when a candidate for congress and is proud of the record he made in the House of Representatives. Mr. La Follette is still a young man—only 43 years of age—and therefore has a simple future before him if he does not ruin it by unwise. By bidding his time he will come up later as a favorite candidate. His present candidacy is unwise in the extreme and the advisers who have urged him to take this course are evidently determined to make use of Mr. La Follette for their special ends. Doubtless they think when he throws so much upon one cast of the die that if he is defeated in his present effort for a nomination he will hereafter become a

Mr. La Follette is a gentleman of ability but his ambition is misleading him to pluck the fruit from the tree before it is ripe.

Have a Fine Machine.

Monroe Sentinel: "So far as we are able to judge, those 'anti-machine' leaders have the most consummate machine organization in the state. We apprehend that few people will be misled by the cry of the faction, which simply is figuring to get out the ins that the ones may get in. No one denies that reform is necessary and desirable; that politics need purification, and careful selection of delegates and candidates bring good results to the people. But what sort of men are these who have raised the hue and cry against the very best men in the republican party, men who have given character and stability to the party's claim for confidence and the support of the people?"

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played Yesterday in the Various Leagues.

Three of the eastern clubs entered on their third western trip yesterday. Both of Chicago's close pursuers lost. Philadelphia continued its conquering march by trouncing Pittsburgh to a whitewash, the drenched Platt doing the pitching. Louisville also kept up its gait and downed New York, adding a little more margin to Chicago's lead for fifth place. Boston had its usual luck in being scheduled at St. Louis, where it could win even with a patched-up team. Brooklyn was unable to stop the Reds. Scores:

Fairbanks for President.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—It is announced here by the friends of Senator Charles W. Fairbanks that he intends to be a candidate for the republican nomination for the presidency in 1904. It is averred that he has already secured promise of support from President McKinley, Senator Hanna, Senator Foraker and other influential representatives of the party. The plan of the national politicians, it is said, contemplates the renomination of President McKinley in 1900 by acclamation.

Columbia Is in Great Peril.

New York, July 29.—A dispatch from Colon, Colombia, says the Cerruti matter is now extremely serious. Three Italian warships are in front of Cartagena, one is at Colon and another is lying at Buena Ventura. The Italian admiral has received orders to bombard Cartagena. Great Britain and the United States are intervening, and the admiral, having represented the situation to his government, is now awaiting final instructions.

Strengthening Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., July 29.—The war department is quietly but with all possible speed pushing arrangements for increasing the fortifications at Esquimalt, the ultimate intention being the absorption of the entire peninsula upon which the fort is located, and according to a naval authority, to make at the southern corner of Vancouver island a supply depot as impregnable as Gibraltar.

Building and Loan Election.

Omaha, Neb., July 29.—The sixth annual session of the United States League of Local Building and Loan Associations closed with the election of officers for the next year. President Fred Bader was chosen president. Niagara Falls was chosen as the place for the annual meeting in 1899.

Looks for Thorn's Reprieve.

New York, July 29.—Lawyer William F. Howe is confident he has succeeded in saving the life of Martin Thorn, the slayer of William Guldensuppe. Thorn is confined in the death cell at Sing Sing prison, and unless Gov. Black interferes will be placed in the electric chair Monday.

Republicans Choose Sept. 21.

Detroit, Mich., July 29.—The republican state convention will be held in Detroit on Sept. 21. Grant Fellows and Congressman William Alden Smith were nominated for the temporary chairmanship, and the former won by a vote of 14 to 8.

Texas Cattle Fever Spreading.

Topeka, Kan., July 29.—Texas fever is spreading among the cattle of southern Kansas, and great concern is felt for the stockmen. A number of contaminated herds from Texas have been admitted, and the result is that the COAL PRICES RISE, BUT SALES ARE FEW.

CONSUMERS THINK THE MARKET WILL BREAK.

Other Mining Companies Have Followed the Lead of the D. L. & W., and Sent Quotations Up $1 a Ton—Threatened Demoralization of the Market Throughout the State.

No more $8 coal is to be had in the Janesville market. At least, so the dealers say. They have all received notice of an advance of $1 in Milwaukee.

"An advance really means $7 coal in Janesville, but very little is being sold at that figure. Coal yard forces are busy delivering coal ordered at the old price of $8 a ton. Consumers are not hesitating to put in orders at $7, for they doubt the ability of the shippers to keep up prices. Around the state the situation is the same. The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

There is reason to believe that the retailers will make a lively scramble to secure the remaining business and the market will soon be as badly demoralized by price cutting as it was before the Beranton people applied their heroic remedy to revive trade July 7, by lowering the price to $5 a ton.

As a matter of fact the western coal market, as far as hard coal is concerned, is badly demoralized and while the price has been raised all along the line, no one expects that the advance will be maintained. The only remedy that suggests itself to the market experts is to restrict the output at the mines until the supply is shortened to the limits of a scarcity. Of course with the improved processes for mining and the fact that bituminous coal has nearly annihilated the demand for anthracite coal as a steam producer and limited its use to domestic purposes any scarcity that might be created by restricting the output could be made good in a short time by crowding the mine to their utmost capacity for a short time. However, if the producing companies adopt this method to reform the market, they will probably hold it for some time. The mining companies make no secret of the fact that they have an agreement by which the monthly output of each company is regulated so that each company is allowed to put its proportion of the aggregate production upon the market each month. This is one of the agreements that is strictly adhered to, and if a company exceeds its limit during the month, it has to suffer for it in the following months' allotment. Under these circumstances it would be an easy matter to restrict the output, and by this means create an excuse for an advance in the price.

BELOIT'S DEATH RECORD.

Miss Anna Abell and Mrs. Benedict Called From Earth's Activities.

Beloit, Wis., July 29.—[Special]—Miss Anna Abell, of this city, died yesterday of consumption. Miss Abell was about twenty years old and had a great many friends. She was an active member of the Methodist church, and the funeral will be held from there this afternoon at four o'clock.

Mrs. Benedict, who resided east of the city, died Wednesday. She was the mother of Mrs. Frank Emsgen. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the home.

Restored to the Public Domain.

Washington, July 29.—The president has issued a proclamation restoring the lands known as the middle and western Saline reserves, in the Cherokee outlet, to the public domain.

Madrid, July 29.—It is reported that the government has received another dispatch confirming the report that Manila has surrendered to Admiral Dewey.

A POPULAR MISTAKE.

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion, or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when, as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect digestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when, in fact, as Dr. Werthler says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

Druggists sell these tablets at 50 cts. per package. Circulars and testimonials sent free by addressing Stuart Co.,

LOOKING AFTER SOLDIERS' HEALTH

THE SANITARY PRECAUTIONS AT CAMP CUBA LIBRE

Everything Possible is Being Done to Prevent the Spread of Disease—Homesickness a Prolific Cause of Disability—Funds from Home Are Thankfully Received.

Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla., July 27.—The telegrams sent to Janesville keep you posted on the health of the Janesville people in Jacksonville. It is hard to tell how these camp fevers originate. Cleanliness of quarters has been enforced as much as possible. Dampness can collect under the floors and vegetation growing shows that it cannot be entirely healthy in the tents. Consequently all floors have been raised and chloride of lime scattered there as well as all around the vicinity of our company lines. The sinks at the lower end of the company street have been moved and the men advised as far as possible how to take care of themselves.

The sickness, in most cases starts with headache and is followed by chills and fever and pains in most of the muscles and leaves the patient very weak.

The exceedingly dull life the men lead and the lack of excitement tends toward giving their imagination full swing and allows a tendency towards homesickness to creep in and that weakens the stamina of the men.

Many of the boys are very careless of taking even necessary precautions, and a good many ill can be directly traced to some indiscretion or neglect. Typhoid fever hasn't been pronounced on any of our cases yet; malaria is the main trouble.

The hospital fund, made from donations of home friends of the volunteers, is not entirely exhausted. It goes toward buying ice, fruit, and a little bar (this is a great bother, the government doesn't furnish such things). A telegram for $10 was received yesterday from the Women's association of Janesville. It will be applied to that fund, and is appreciated. It makes hard work for the well men, doing double duty for those sick.

An engineering corps has been or is being organized. The corps will be in charge of Lieut. Tucker, of Milwaukee, one of the old timers and well known to Janesville people as a marksman. He will draw a captain's pay and be ranking officer. Co. A's detail will probably be Corporal Sweeney and Private Karney.

Lieut. Bloedel had great luck in his fishing trip last Saturday, catching trout weighing 8 to 10 pounds, and most of them spoiled before cooking. Hence his loss.

The boys are cheerful and making the best of their enforced idleness, and are laughing yet at one of the men who started to take a powder the other day and stopped just short of taking a dose of Allan's Foot Ease.

Private Chapman has a week's detail at the Regimental Bakery. The bread furnished by down town parties has been very poor, and the baking of our own bread, and good bread, is a happy change.

Private Butterfield had a day off down town yesterday and Privates Hein and McQuade spent Sunday in St. Augustine.

Recommendation went to headquarters yesterday for the appointment for new corporals as follows: Private Irish, Jellyman, Freeman, Knipschield, Lewis and Buchholz.

A notice comes to us to have all men who cannot stand active service in the opinion of company commander put through another examination.

No more parades will be held and no more allowed to drill before having his meal. This does away with the morning setting up exercises, which we have been having immediately after assembly roll call.

The order also limits drilling not later than 9 a. m. and only between 4:30 and 8:30 p. m., thus forbidding long hard marches in a hot sun.

The question of the routine of this life is broken occasionally by quarrels between the men of different regiments in which, before the guards arrive, almost the entire forces take part. So far serious disturbances have been avoided. But jealous members of other forces are apparently constantly looking for trouble and a jolly clash may come some day.

Wisconsin still holds the pennant for the bull playing; still undefeated. New Jersey played against us last Saturday.

A FRANTIC RUNAWAY TEAM

Makes Lively Time Through the Streets and Injures a Man.

There was a lively runaway on the street yesterday, which for a time gave promise of bearing serious results. A team of big bays belonging to Charles Fitch, of Emerald Grove, and driven by William Kilaus and Fred Ross, ran, for no apparent cause, up Main to Milwaukee street, where Mr. Ross was thrown out, the heavy farm wagon passing over his right arm and causing a fracture of one of the small bones of the wrist. Mr. Kilaus remained in the wagon, and with remarkable coolness succeeded in turning the team into a lamp post in front of Robinson & Co's saloon, which ended their mad flight. This is the second time the same team has run a way in the last week, and both times in this city. Mr. Ross' injury was a very painful one, and the fracture was reduced by Dr. E. F. Woods.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Chicago, July 29.—[Special].—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Thunder storms tonight and Saturday.

WILL RENT A CITY LOCK-UP

Police Committee Vote to Make This Recommendation to Council.

The police committee of the council met this afternoon and voted that a lock-up be rented. This was on the theory that sooner or later a city hall would be built with lock-up included.

A location on West Milwaukee street was favored by the committee. If suitable arrangements as to the price can be made the Gagan building next east of E. J. Kent's will be leased and movable cages put in.

These cages can be moved into a new building at any time. The county board gave the city until August 1 to provide a lock-up, but it is understood that there is no disposition to crowd matters.

WHEN PEACE IS BROUGHT ABOUT

THE TERMS TO WHICH SPAIN SHOULD BE HELD.

Janesville Business and Professional Men Express Their Opinions—Cuba and Porto Rico Must Be Freed from the Spanish Yoke—A War Indemnity Not Insisted Upon.

The overtures for peace presented on behalf of Spain by the French ambassador at Washington have awakened much interest in Janesville as well as elsewhere, and the question of the conditions upon which the request shall be granted has awakened much discussion. The Gazette reporters have been holding the public pulse on this matter, and find substantial unanimity of sentiment. Appended is a brief summary of the expressions of prominent business and professional men, which show the direction which opinion is taking:

C. J. Russell.—We should insist on the possession of Cuba and Porto Rico, with perhaps a coaling station in the Philippines.

A. H. Sheldon.—Annex Porto Rico, establish military government in Cuba until the inhabitants form a stable government. If they cannot do this, the island should be ours. Retain the Philippines at least until payment of indemnity.

W. G. Wheeler.—It is generally conceded that we should retain Cuba and Porto Rico, annexing the latter. The question of the Philippines is to momentous to venture an opinion on. I think though, we should have a coaling station there.

Dr. J. B. Whiting.—We had better get rid of this war on the best terms we can without sacrificing national honor and with safety to our future. Clearly, we can whip Spain, but what are we to do with Cuba and the Cuban patriots? "The Lord lift up the light of his countenance upon us" and help us to find a way out of this unfortunate situation.

Archibald Reid.—We want all the territory we can get. Should have Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

John M. Whithead.—Fulfill our promise to Cuba to help them set up a stable government. Retain Porto Rico and insist on coaling stations wherever we want them in any Spanish possession. I favor no indemnity as we went into this war in the cause of humanity and not for gain.

J. M. Bostwick.—Fulfill our promise to Cuba but if they can't form a suitable government annex the island. We do not want such a far removed possession as the Philippines although we should have a coaling station there and also in the Ladrones. We should keep Porto Rico.

City Treasurer Fatherson.—We should hold Porto Rico and demand the freedom of Cuba; also a coaling station in the Philippines. I think that would amply repay us for the expense of the war.

C. L. Spencer.—It seems to me that we should demand that Spain give up all claims to Porto Rico and Cuba, and pay a cash indemnity. I believe that the Philippines would be a load that we would not care for.

H. Hoffmaster.—We should demand the relinquishment of Porto Rico and the freedom of Cuba and Manila; also a coaling station in the Pacific.

C. O. Bonham.—I place all my confidence in President McKinley. Whatever he does will be for the best interests of the people.

Mayor Thoroughgood.—I never was an active advocate of war and never expected to see the country get so far into it as at present. I want to see peace but the peace must be satisfactory to the United States.

Brown Bros.—We believe in the annexation of all the territory we acquire by conquest, including Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

C. A. Thompson.—Cuba should have absolute independence. Spain should be required to make full settlement for the cost of this war, and her colonel's held to secure the payment.

Hall, Bayles & Field.—The United States should retain Porto Rico and govern Cuba until they are able to take care of themselves. We should also keep the Island of Luzon in the Philippines and give coaling stations to all the powers except Spain, thereby placing them under obligations to us.

GEN. SHAFTER'S BROTHER HERE

Janesville was favored for a short time today by the presence here of a somewhat illustrious personage, J. M. Shafter, sheriff of De Kalb county, Ill., and a brother of General W. R. Shafter, the hero of Santiago. Mr. Shafter very closely resembles his famous brother. He is one of a party of four from Syracuse, Ill., the others being H. M. Whittemore, Dr. J. W. Nisbet and H. H. Olson. They are travelling overland in a camping wagon and are bound for Lake Koshkonong where they will pitch their camp for the next two weeks. They left Syracuse yesterday morning and came by way of Beloit.

WORKMEN HAD A GOOD TIME

The A. O. U. W. Picnic Proved All That Was Promised.

Olive Branch No. 30, A. O. U. W. held its annual picnic yesterday at Crystal Springs park. The first of the crowd went up on the ten o'clock boat, and it was fully one o'clock this morning before the last of the merry makers were on their way home. Games and contests of all kinds occupied the afternoon, and Tuckwood's orchestra furnished the inspiration in the evening for the dance. The Imperial band also furnished very fine music.

The walkers were the first to arrive at the park, the distance from the Myers House to the park being covered in fifty-three minutes. Harry Atwood won first and a $1 pair of shoes; Walter Merritt second and an $8.00 pair of trousers; Clarence Smith third and a box of cigars valued at $2.00. In the bicycle race Frank Smith won first; Art Jones second and Barbek third. The prizes were: First, an $8 suit; second, $3.50 shoes; third, silver calendar valued at $3.00.

The sprint and a box of fifty cigars was won by Grant Taylor.

Prof. Muldoon proved much more than expected, showing a wonderful supply of strength; bending iron bars and throwing dumbbells and cannon balls around with such a degree of accuracy that would easily give him a place in Sampson's list. His feat of holding and jerking a ninety-four pound dumb bell in his teeth was something wonderful. Backstages and pie eating contests completed the games, and a speech by the presiding officer and one by Mayor Thoroughgood finished the exercises, the rest of the time being spent at the pleasure of those present.

Strange Oversight Of A Lot Sheet In Search Of Sensations.

It is queer how our morning contemporary will sometime relax its vigilance and overlook a good thing. It seems from reading the sheet that everything of importance passes the office doors. The public has been informed during the last few days that the "patrol swept by the Recorder's office on its errand of mercy" and that the "A. C. U. W. parade was led past the Recorder's office," but when the unfortunate Patry Griffin, under the influence of stimulants was "swept by the door" by the police on the way to jail, the paper took no notice of the important fact. How about this?

JAIL ISSUE IS LEFT UNTIL NOVEMBER

THE STATE BOARD OF CONTROL GRANTS EXTENSION.

County Clerk McIntyre and Supervisors Bailey and Rathernam Talk Things Over in Madison, and Secure a Concession as to the Length of Time Allowed.

An agreement between the State Board of Control and the county board has been reached in regard to the condemnation of the jail.

When N. B. Treat of the state board was in Janesville two weeks ago he visited County Clerk McIntyre to visit Madison and look things over. Clerk McIntyre agreed to go if members of the building committee would go with him. At the Madison conference, therefore, Rock county was represented by Messrs. McIntyre, Bailey and Rathernam.

The attitude of the county board was explained and it was urged by the Rock county men that condemnation proceedings be deferred.

The original notice served by the board of control last July was that the jail would be condemned in one year from the date of service.

At the Madison conference it was urged in behalf of Rock county that a stay of proceedings be granted. It was asked that the jail be not condemned until after the November meeting of the supervisors. This concession was finally made.

The state board will do nothing about the jail, therefore, until November. If the county takes steps at that time to build a new jail all will be harmonious and joyful.

MARINETTE IS FOR SCOFIELD

Ex-Congressman Stephenson Pledges the Fidelity of His Town.

Marinette, Wis., July 29.—Isaac Stephenson said this morning in regard to the reports that he is in sympathy with and aiding the movement to nominate Mr. La Follette for governor, that the reports are without foundation and that he is heartily in favor of the re-nomination of Gov. Scofield, because he says Gov. Scofield is entitled to a second term. He also said he believed the Marinette delegation would be solid for Governor Scofield. He says Marinette county has been solid for Scofield for the past four years and he does not think anything has occurred to lessen its confidence in the executive.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

OUTLINES OF OUR REPLY.

Peace Ultimatum Awaits Cabinet Action.

WILL BE GENEROUS TO SPAIN.

Secretary Day Is Disposed to Be Very Lenient with Our Defeated Enemy—This Course Said to Have the Sanction of the President.

Washington, July 29.—Secretary of State Day was closeted with the president Thursday over the response to Spain's note suing for peace. When he left the white house Mr. Day announced that the reply of the government would be given to Spain today or Saturday. Meantime its tenor, so far as the administration is able to do so, is to be closely guarded from the public.

It has been noticeable that since the conference with members of the cabinet following Ambassador Cambon's presentation of Spain's preliminary note there have been few important conferences at the white house. Several members of the cabinet meantime have called individually, but none has done so by prearrangement. This is taken to indicate that the formal response of the administration already is clearly outlined and is only awaiting the final consensus of opinion at today's cabinet session.

Many persons who called on the president Thursday on political matters made inquiries as to the peace situation, but gathered little important information. Several, however, who have talked with the president and Secretary Day say the administration is prepared to meet any steps the Spanish government may take.

"Our terms will be such as to meet the approval of the entire world," one of the cabinet is quoted as saying, but further than that he would not go.

Secretary Day's answer, it is said, is not in line with general public sentiment, and apparently stretches generosity to a point which the people may not at once appreciate.

Secretary Day proposes that the United States shall insist upon the independence of Cuba, with this country as the sponsor for the new government.

He also suggests the cession of Porto Rico to the United States absolutely, thus destroying Spanish sovereignty in the western hemisphere.

Money indemnity is waived, and the Philippines are to be given back to Spain in consideration of the immediate evacuation of Havana, so that the work of relieving the starving people there may begin at once.

The Ladrone and Carolines also revert to Spain, but possibly with the exception of another coaling station.

This peace plan is not as yet an administration measure, but is Secretary Day's idea of extreme mercy to a prostrate foe. The plan appears to have, however, the sanction of the president, to a certain extent, and hence it is asserted in influential quarters tonight that this is the answer which will be made to Spain.

SPANISH PEOPLE WANT PEACE.

Would Give Almost Anything to Escape Paying a War Indemnity.

Madrid, July 27.—A New York World correspondent cables: President McKinley can get peace within twenty-four hours, including the surrender of Manila and Porto Rico. If he will waive indemnity in money and not be too hard in his terms respecting the Philippines.

The Spanish people are gloomily resigned to peace, having lost confidence in all the political parties, in their statesmen and in their generals. All classes care only for their material interests and are anxious to escape from a crippling of the country's finances by a heavy war indemnity.

It is remarkable that a majority of the nation seems to regard it as a foregone conclusion that the queen and cabinet will accept almost any conditions in order to secure peace. The ministers and the generals have come to the conclusion that they have little to fear now in the way of military resistance and discontent, which would have been formidable only if led by Weyler or if it assumed the form of revolution.

Indiana Regiment Starts.

Camp Thomas, Chickamauga Park, Ga., July 29.—The One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana Infantry, the regiment which took the place of the Fifth Illinois in the Third brigade, First division, First army corps, marched to Rossville early Thursday morning and loaded for the trip to Newport News. The Indiana men cheered the Illinois men, and on neither side was there an expression other than of good will.

Reducing August's Power.

London, July 29.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says: "La Correspondencia de Espana announces that in view of the probable capitulation of Manila Gen. Rice, captain-general of the Visayas islands, has been ordered to assume charge of all the territory formerly administered by Capt.-Gen. August. Thus Gen. August will be able to sign only the capitulation of the city of Manila and its pendent of the Times says: "The terms of peace which America imposes occasion surprise here as much too hard. The National Gazette remarks that the United States have not won a victory signal enough to warrant such hard terms and expresses the opinion that the prospects of peace are, in consequence, gloomy."

London Looks for Peace.

London, July 29.—Diplomatists in London see no difficulty which should stand in the way of a treaty of peace between the United States and Spain being signed within a measurable time. They acknowledge that if the suggested basis of settlement as received here was accurate it afforded another striking instance of the generosity and humanity which have characterized American conduct of affairs throughout this remarkable war. It is expected that the reasonable attitude of the president and members of his cabinet will tend to facilitate the bloodless occupation of Porto Rico by the American forces.

Stopped a British Transport.

London, July 29.—The Daily Mail says that the British transport Jelunga, carrying the Second battalion of the Grenadier Guards from Southampton to Gibraltar, was stopped in the Bay of Biscay last week by an American cruiser, but was allowed to proceed after an examination, with apologies. It is also stated that the British government has been aware for several days of the presence of American cruisers in the Bay of Biscay, but the matter has been kept secret.

German Fleet Withdrawn.

Washington, July 29.—It is said now that the German fleet was withdrawn from the harbor of Manila, after the arrival of the two last militia expeditions from the United States. This move on the part of the German authorities, it is said, is due to the belief that German interests would be fully taken care of when Manila fell into the hands of Gen. Merritt. The understanding between this government and Germany is said to be perfect.

Powers to Fix the Indemnity.

Rome, July 29.—Popolo Romano says that the conditions of peace are sufficiently grave, but that Spain ought to accept and prepare to pay an indemnity, adding that the powers should make recommendations as to its limitations. Gen. Cosens said to me that the military success of the United States justified all their demands and Spain ought to submit unless she wishes to lose everything.

Ocean Cable to the Orient.

San Francisco, Cal., July 29.—The Evening Post says the United States will soon be connected by cable with her newly acquired Pacific possessions. The cable will connect the United States from this city with Hawaii, the Ladrone, the Philippines and Hongkong. The work is to be completed within six months. The price to be paid is said to be $10,000,000.

Await Troops at Ferdinandina.

Fernandina, Fla., July 29.—Troop trains are expected to arrive today. Several regiments are due to reach Ferdinandina to be embarked for Porto Rico. Thursday was spent in discharging the heavy shipments of government freight to this point consigned to the quartermaster of the Fourth corps.

Will Sail on the St. Paul.

San Francisco, Cal., July 29.—The third battalion of the South Dakota volunteers, the Thirtieth Minnesota recruits and 155 of the First Colorado recruits broke camp Thursday and marched on board the transport St. Paul, which pulled out into the stream late in the afternoon. The vessel sails today.

Discussed in Paris.

Paris, July 29.—At a cabinet council M. Volcasse, minister of foreign affairs, submitted to his colleagues certain questions arising out of Spain's overtures for peace. It is believed that the discussion turned mainly on the critical situation of Frenchmen in Cuba, arising out of the stagnation of business since the war began.

Powers May Meet in Paris.

London, July 29.—A New York World correspondent cables: "The Daily Telegraph has a Vienna dispatch which says there is every prospect now that a meeting of the powers will be held in Paris for dealing with the future of the Philippines. Representatives of all the great powers will be present."

Typhoid Fever Under Control.

Camp Alger, Va., July 29.—Only two cases of typhoid fever were reported at Camp Alger Thursday. Both patients belong to the Sixty-fifth New York, one of the regiments which has been peculiarly susceptible to the epidemic. No deaths were reported, but on the contrary the surgeons claim to have the disease under control.

Col. Culver Denies a Report.

Chickamauga, July 29.—A report that the men of the Fifth Illinois were in revolt on account of having been ordered back to camp after starting for Porto Rico is denied by Col. Culver, who characterized the story as a malicious falsehood.

The Chief Burgess of Miesburg.

TO BRING SOLDIERS HOME.

Gen. Shafter's Army Will Leave Cuba.

HEALTHFUL CAMP SELECTED.

Alarmed at the Ravages of Fever, the Government Has Decided to Remove the Troops to a Point Near Montauk, Long Island.

Washington, July 29.—Secretary Alger is deeply concerned over the welfare of the gallant troops under Gen. Shafter's command now encamped on the outskirts of Santiago. The health report shows a surprisingly large number of cases of sickness, but army surgeons authorize the statement that these figures are misleading in a certain sense, and that the situation may not be nearly so bad as they would seem to indicate.

The slightest ailment of the most temporary nature suffices to place a soldier's name on the sick reports; which, in their present shape, would not distinguish between such cases and one of mortal illness. The inference is that many of these cases in Shafter's camp are of a trivial nature, but go to swell its grand total of sick and wounded.

Notwithstanding this mitigating fact, Secretary Alger is going to remove the soldiers at the very earliest opportunity to a more healthful climate.

The surgeon-general, under the direction of the secretary, a few days ago inspected a tract of land adjoining Montauk Point, Long Island, belonging to the Long Island Railroad company, which has been offered to the government as suitable for a large encampment.

The necessary orders to equip this as a camping ground will go forward immediately, and every advantage will be taken of the experience gained in the formation of the great camps at Chickamauga and Falls Church to make the conditions as comfortable as possible for the men of Shafter's army. The time for their removal is left to Gen. Shafter, the only limitation placed upon him being that he shall not delay the homeward sailing of his troops beyond the moment when it shall be safe for them to leave Santiago, having regard to the fever conditions.

Meanwhile details are being made of troops to supply the force that shall garrison Santiago as long as it shall be found necessary to continue troops there. This force will be made up almost altogether of immunes.

The war department last night posted the following:

"Adjutant-General of the Army—Condition for the Twenty-seventh—Total sick, 4,122; total fever, 3,193; new cases fever, 822; cases fever returned to duty, 542."

"SHAFTER, Major-General." "Camara's Fleet at Cadiz."

Madrid, July 29.—Capt. Annon, minister of marine, has received a dispatch from Admiral Camara announcing that his fleet has cast anchor at Cadiz.

TO MRS. PINKHAM.

From Mrs. Walter E. Budd, of Pat-chogue, New York.

Mrs. Budd, in the following letter, tells a familiar story of weakness and suffering, and thanks Mrs. Pinkham for complete relief:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I think it is my duty to write to you and tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I feel like another woman."

I had such dreadful headaches through my temples and on top of my head, that I nearly went crazy; was also troubled with chills, was very weak; my left side from my shoulders to my waist pained me terribly. I could not sleep for the pain. Plasters would help for a while, but as soon as taken off, the pain would be just as bad as ever. Doctors prescribed medicine, but it gave me no relief.

"Now I feel so well and strong, have no more headaches, and no pain in side, and it is all owing to your Compound. I cannot praise it enough. It is a wonderful medicine. I recommend it to every woman I know."

Want Lower Rates.
Chicago, July 28.—The differences between the grain shippers of northwestern Iowa and several railroad companies in respect to the rates of transportation will be considered by the interstate commerce commission, which meets in Chicago Monday. The railroads interested in the proceedings are the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Chicago & Northwestern, the Illinois Central, and the Chicago, Minneapolis & Omaha. The case of the shippers, in their efforts to secure lower rates, will be presented by the Grain-Shippers' association of northwest Iowa. The association will, it is said, endeavor to obtain a reduction of 20 per cent in the present rates.

Express Companies Must Pay.
Chicago, July 29.—Express companies must pay that part of the war tax which is provided for in the new revenue act by the section requiring 1-cent stamps to be attached to all bills of lading. Judge Tukey today ruled in favor of the shippers in the test case brought by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, granting a writ of mandamus compelling the United States Express company to accept for transportation a package for shipment to Pine Bluff, Ark., without the payment of 1 cent in excess of the regular rate. The case will be carried to higher tribunals by the defendants in the suit.

Dewey Sends After Spanish Boats.
New York, July 29.—A cablegram from Hongkong says Admiral Dewey, at Manila, has dispatched the Raleigh and Concord to gather up eleven Spanish craft which, according to information sent him by Consul-General Wildman, are at various places in the Philippine archipelago.

The same dispatch reports that English traders at the coal mines at Batan, Luzon island, have been imprisoned and subjected to ill-treatment otherwise by the Spaniards there.

Big Gain in Collections.
Washington, July 29.—An official statement has been received at the treasury department showing that under the present tariff law the amount of duty collected during the last fiscal year on the personal effects of steamship passengers arriving in this country was about 400 per cent in excess of the amount received during the previous fiscal year. Last year the amount collected was $343,518, or about $4 per capita, as against $92,512, or 24½ cents per capita for the previous year.

Charged with Embezzlement.
San Francisco, July 29.—Quartermaster-Sergeant James M. Young of the Twentieth Kansas regiment has been ordered under arrest by Col. Funston, charged with embezzling government property. He is alleged to have sold stores issued as food for the regiment. Young admits his guilt and gives the excuse that he was doing only what every other commissary of Camp Mer-
